

BIOGRAPHY

Anthony Jucha

Solicitor & Barrister
Strategic Legal Advisor
Contracts Specialist

PROFESSIONAL CAREER:

Anthony is a commercial lawyer specialising in providing services for in-house legal requirements. He has worked as in-house counsel and an external lawyer for many organisations. Anthony provides legal advice and drafts, reviews and negotiates commercial agreements.

He is a precise drafter and experienced negotiator and has dealt with many sorts of contractual transactions including: Business Sale, Asset Sale, Supply, Service, Construction, Consultancy, Confidentiality, Franchise, Manufacturing, Distribution, Employment, Sponsorship, Advertising, Guarantee, Novation, Lease, Raw Material Purchase, Collaborative Research, Licence, Hardware, Software, Hosting, Support and Escrow Agreements.

As a result of this background, Anthony is very aware of the challenges in obtaining commercial and practical legal advice and managing legal costs.

FORMAL QUALIFICATIONS:

- Bachelor's Degree in Law (Hons)
- Bachelor's Degree in Economics
- Masters Degree in Dispute Resolution
- Graduate Certificate in Legal Practice
- Unrestricted practising certificate

EXPERIENCE:

Anthony's legal career started in the litigation department of Finlaysons, a member of the Allens Arthur Robinson Legal Group. He worked as in-house counsel at F.H. Faulding & Co Limited and moved to London to work as in house counsel for Shell International Limited.

Anthony returned to Australia and worked for commercial law firms in Adelaide and the Redfern Legal Centre in Sydney before establishing his own legal practice. In that pursuit, he has worked for clients such as Adelaide Brighton Limited, Sydney Airport Corporation Limited and BlueScope Steel Limited.